TERMS AND CONDITIONS

For undertaking Online Data Typing Work (To be understood & signed by the MEMBER)

1. Everybody willing to take up the Online Data Typing work project should make sure that he/she is capable enough to accomplish the task successfully. The person undertaking the work Project will be called as 'MEMBER'.

2. The MEMBER should strictly follow the rules in order to maintain the ACCURACY of the page being edited.

   a. The spelling should be exactly the same as those are in the scanned files. Sometimes the spelling maybe wrong in the original scanned files but we do not consider that as errors. The MEMBERS must edit the page exactly as per the scanned file.

   b. The punctuation should be at their respective places as per the scanned image. Numerical mistakes will also be count as errors. You should not type any missing, extra, or duplicate text. If you do so we will count as many errors as the number of letters therein.

   d. There should not be any mismatch of the uppercase letter or lowercase letter (small letter/capital letter). You should edit in the same case (uppercase/lowercase letter) as it is in the scanned file.

   e. Typing should be started from the very first column and line without leaving any space. The space bar should not be pressed at the starting or end of a line otherwise it will be considered as well as counted as an error.

   f. The word count in one line of the image file and edited file should be the same and should not be different. The MEMBER should keep changing the line and Para by pressing 'ENTER' once or twice as per the scanned image file.

   h. There should be 'SPACE' where it is seen in the image file and there should not be 'SPACE' where it is not seen in the image file. Though if more or less 'SPACE' is given as it is seen in the image file, it is not considered as an error, but there has to be one 'SPACE' where it is seen.

3. Allowed ID may cancel due to following foresaid reasons.

   a. If the MEMBER will achieve a minimum of 1500/- Rs from the project then the MEMBER will get the next project free of cost. If MEMBER's earning is less then 1500/- Rs. from this project, then the contract will terminate and fees will lapse. No further assignments will be provided.

   b. If the MEMBER discontinues the project in between work period at his own then the work is sub-contracted by the MEMBER. If the MEMBER uses any unauthenticated means other than manual typing or use any other third party software or indulged in breaking through the password protected structures of the program or any kind of copy-paste. It will be on the sole discretion of the company to decide if the MEMBER has used some unauthenticated means or broken through the password protected structures of the program or not. It will not be practically possible to give the MEMBER any proof of such an act having been committed by him thus any such conclusion extracted by the company will be final and not challengeable. No communication by the MEMBER in this regard will be entertained.
